

AusBiotech Queensland Branch
Ernst & Young Breakfast Series proudly presents
Climate Change
the way forward for biotech

Dr Peter Grace, Director, Institute for Sustainable Resources at QUT will discuss the immediate and downstream impacts of climate change on the biotech industry

Dr Manuel Sainz, Syngenta Centre for Sugarcane Biofuels Development will discuss the increasing use and impact of biofuels and the opportunities
this presents for Australian biotech

Date: Wednesday 5 March 2008

Time: 7:00 am – 9:00 am

Venue: Indooroopilly Golf Club, Meiers Road, Indooroopilly, Brisbane

Cost: (inc GST) AusBiotech Members $35.00, Non-Members $50.00, AusBiotech Student Members $22.00

RSVP: Register by COB Friday 29th February 2008

E: events@ausbiotech.org F: 03 9824 5188

Registration:

<http://www.ausbiotech.org/events/states.asp?state=QLD>

Proudly Supported by:

For more information on any of the above events please visit www.ausbiotech.org or contact:

Industry Development Officer- Anne Hartshorn-Smith (07) 3331 3990 or Events Co-Coordinator - Jessica Gorman (03) 9828 1450