

College of Counselling Psychologists and Women in Psychology Interest Group.

Present

IN CONVERSATION

about

“Climate Change and other Catastrophes: Fears and Concerns for the Future”.

Chaired by Ann Aboud.

Kathryn has worked at QUT since 1977 and currently works in the Faculty of Health, School of Psychology and Counselling. She is in the process of editing a book on fears emanating from climate change and global warming. Kathryn has an impressive research history and a lengthy publications list.

Elizabeth is writing one chapter for this book based on some theories presented by some of the prominent environmentalists.

Those who have counselled clients with fears of a forthcoming world collapse, environmental disaster or similar, are encouraged to contribute to the discussion.
